FEEDBACK MECHANISM AT SREE NARAYANA NURSING COLLEGE

Feedback is essential for the growth and development of Sree Narayana Nursing College. Positive feedback fuels our motivation to achieve our goals, while constructive criticism highlights areas for improvement and enhances quality. We firmly believe that feedback is a vital component in our commitment to excellence.

Feedback Collection

We have established a structured feedback mechanism that involves various stakeholders, including students, staff, alumni, professionals, and employers. Their insights on our curriculum and infrastructure are gathered regularly.

Modes of Collection:

Curriculum Feedback:

Available both online and offline. Offline feedback is collected through standardized questionnaires distributed to stakeholders.

Feedback Analysis

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) analyzes the collected feedback. Regular meetings are held with the curriculum committee to discuss the insights and issues raised. Most curriculum-related decisions are made during these meetings, while significant changes that require higher authority approval are

Action Taken

After thorough analysis and discussion, feedback and suggestions are communicated to all relevant members and faculty, leading to actionable steps. Updates on these actions are disseminated through official circulars.

Student Feedback

Feedback from outgoing students is collected in various formats tailored to their convenience. As our most crucial stakeholders, students provide invaluable qualitative insights into the curriculum.

Alumni Feedback

We regularly gather feedback from alumni during meetings or when they visit the administrative block. Their perspectives are essential for identifying strengths and weaknesses in the curriculum, contributing to future improvements.

Faculty Feedback

Faculty feedback is collected annually, providing insights from their professional experiences to enhance quality and care within the curriculum.

FEED BACK COMMITTEE 2023-2024

Sree Narayana Nursing College has implemented a well-defined feedback system that gathers input from all stakeholders, including students, teachers, parents, alumni, employers, and professionals, on an annual basis. This collective feedback is summarized and analyzed to identify corrective actions and facilitate continuous improvement. The primary goal of this feedback collection is to create a structured framework for acquiring, summarizing, and documenting insights from all stakeholders.

Objectives of the Feedback System:

- Enhance Student Interaction: Foster greater engagement between students and the institution.
- Improve Teaching-Learning Quality: Continuously refine the educational process based on stakeholder input.
- Communicate Progress: Keep all stakeholders informed about the institution's advancements and initiatives.
- Strengthen Alumni Links: Build connections with alumni to enhance placement opportunities for current students.
