The Women Empowerment Cell organized a Gender Sensitization Program on "Managing Emotional & Fearful Situations" in the III Floor Auditorium. The program aimed to equip participants with strategies to handle emotional and fearful situations, particularly related to gender issues and personal safety. The event began with a prayer song, followed by expert-led discussions and interactive workshops on managing emotions, reducing stress, and developing coping strategies. Topics included recognizing emotional triggers, building support networks, and practicing mindfulness and self-care. The program concluded with the National Anthem, reinforcing a commitment to emotional health and safety. Participants were encouraged to apply the techniques discussed in their daily lives.
